

Gull COTTAGE

Prospect Harbor
Maine

Naval Support Activity

Hidden in the picturesque fishing village of Prospect Harbor, Maine, is one of the Navy's premier MWR assets. A guest house, known as Gull Cottage, and its associated lighthouse are historical landmarks of unparalleled quality. The residence, constructed in 1891, had been abandoned for many years although the lighthouse was still operational. It was renovated in 1969 for exclusive use as a Navy recreational asset and christened Gull Cottage.

The cottage is a two-story building with two bedrooms, a living room, study, kitchen and bath with both tub and shower. Fully furnished, the cottage includes complete kitchen facilities, with microwave oven, range, refrigerator and cooking utensils.

Reservations

Reservation requests are accepted on a first come first serve basis up to one year in advance by active duty military, National Guard members and military reservists.

Retired military, DoD civilians and 100% disabled veterans may make reservations six months in advance.

Reservations can be made any day of the month by calling 207-584-5099, or 1-877-NAVY BED, or go online:

<http://www.dodlodging.net>

A credit card is required to confirm a reservation.

The Gull Cottage daily rate is $125 per night (two night minimum). Gull Cottage sleeps six.

Length of Stay

There is a two night minimum and the maximum period of scheduled occupancy will be seven nights. The length of stay may be extended, on a day-to-day basis, if vacancy exists. Due to cleaning costs, there is a minimum period of two nights occupancy.

Check-in, Check-out procedures

Guests may check into the cottage after 3 p.m. on their scheduled day of arrival with a designated Gull Cottage representative. Positive identification must be presented when checking in.

Check-out time is 11 a.m., after which an additional day's rental will be charged for the full period of the reservation.

Guest Responsibilities

Guests will not permit children to play in the areas adjacent to other station buildings.

Prior to checking-out, guests will ensure all cooking utensils, dishes and tableware are washed, dried and stowed and all perishable foods have been removed from the cabinets, refrigerator and freezer.

Guests will report all damage or improper operation of equipment to staff as soon as practicable.

Restrictions

Pets are not allowed due to health issues of some guests.

In keeping with the Navy's policy on smoking in Navy buildings, smoking is not permitted in Gull Cottage.

Guests are not authorized to host parties at the cottage without prior approval from the Gull Cottage staff.

Janitorial Services

Gull Cottage conducts a complete cleaning of the facility prior to guest check-in. To avoid infringing on guests' privacy, no janitorial service will be done during occupancy. Additional bed linens are available from Gull Cottage personnel upon request. Trash may be disposed in the receptacle located outside the administration building.

Laundry facilities available for guest use are located in the basement level of the cottage.

Cancellation

Cancellations made less than 30 days of reservation will be charged for a one night stay.

Additional Information

Information on the local area, restaurants, shops, facilities and their hours of operation is available in a binder located on the cottage TV room desk.

Authorized patrons

The cottage is available for reservation by active duty military, retirees, National Guard/reservists, DoD civilians, 100 percent disabled veterans and their families.

We hope you enjoy your stay and become a part of the wall of Gull Cottage by leaving your "memento."
